

House Resolution 1944

By: Representatives Shaw of the 176th, Borders of the 175th, and Black of the 174th

A RESOLUTION

1 Commending James A. Bridges; and for other purposes.

2 WHEREAS, James A. Bridges is widely recognized throughout the state as the personification 3 of excellence in technical education; and

4 WHEREAS, this highly respected professional educator and administrator has served with 5 honor and distinction as a technical educator for over 40 years and as president of Valdosta
6 Technical College since 1984; and

7 WHEREAS, he believes that his continuing role as an educator and administrator is to act as 8 an instrument of inspiration and enthusiasm to his pupils and to create a positive learning 9 environment through the encouragement of competitive instincts in students; and

10 WHEREAS, he is regarded by his peers as the "Dean of Technical Educator" and he has 11 announced his retirement effective June 1, 2006; and

12 WHEREAS, he is a shining example of the important impact that the efforts of education 13 professionals are making on the quality of technical education received by the students of this 14 state, and it is abundantly fitting and proper that his superlative accomplishments be recognized 15 appropriately.

16 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that the 17 members of this body heartily and gratefully commend James A. Bridges for his sacrifice, 18 foresight, accomplishment, and contributions on behalf of technical education in Georgia and 19 for the positive influence he has had upon the lives and futures of countless young people in 20 this state; congratulate him upon the grand occasion of his retirement; and extend to him their 21 most sincere best wishes for health and happiness in the future.

- 1 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized and
- 2 directed to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to James A. Bridges.
